Helbling Family

By Beverly Helbling Klein (Written in 1988)

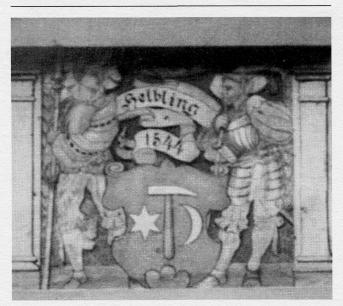

There have been Helblings living in Fort Smith since 1857, but the history of the family dates much further back. The family originally came from Switzerland.

The earliest information on the Helbling Family dates back to the period of 1000 - 1100 A.D. During this time the Helbling's settled between the towns of Bolligen and Jona, Switzerland, located on the east side of Lake Zurich and twenty miles south of Zurich.

Where they came from is not known, but speculation has it that they came from Israel, later to Turkey, then finally Switzerland.

According to a Jewish Rabbi the Family Crest could date back to 2000-1000 B.C. and indicates High position or Royalty in the Jewish Nation. When the Helblings moved to Switzerland their name was HELWIG, then during the transition from Latin to German, the name changed to HELBLING.

In 1544 the Helblings moved to Rapperswil, located on the east shore of Lake Zurich and built around the Castle of Count Rudolph Von Rapperswil. The Family Crest can be found at the top of the Courthouse wall. Another building has the Family Crest with the date 1544 painted on top of an ancient door. There are still Helbling's living in Rapperswil.

The Helbling family crest is a red-orange modified shield, with a gold Star of David, gold crescent, white hammer, a green base and the Helbling family name.

The first Helbling that came to Fort Smith was Felix Johann Helbling, who came in 1857. He came to the United States in 1851 through the Port of New York. He lived in New York for awhile before moving west, first to St. Louis, then to Kansas City and finally to Fort Smith.

Felix Johann Helbling was born on August 19, 1832 in Rapperswil, Switzerland. His father was Balthasar Johann Helbling born September 24, 1794, married Katherina Klingenberger, born June 10, 1841, died November 30, 1864. He died on June 19, 1841. His father was Johann Baptist Helbling born April 19, 1766, died November 22, 1824. His mother was Maria Agatha Bueler born February 23, 1766, died December 10, 1808. Parents of Johann Baptist Helbling were Prosper Helbling and Ana Maria Breny.

Felix Johann had one sister, Maria Ana Philipina Helbling. He also had two brothers, Ferdinard Josef and Conrad Josef who remained in Switzerland.

Felix was a shoemaker by trade and opened a shoe shop in Fort Smith. In his obituary, he was described as a quiet unassuming man, but one whose reminiscences were most interesting. -

He was an excellent workman, and he became the garrison officers' bootmaker soon after he located in Fort Smith. He purchased a lot and erected a little shop at South Third street and Garrison Avenue, just off the parade grounds. The 1881 Fort Smith City Directory listed his shop address as 50 Garrison. The 1894, 1897 directories listed his business address as 302 Garrison. He occupied this location until he sold the lot to Reynolds, Davis & Company for the erection of their wholesale house. The city directories show that the Helbling family lived at Franklin & Pine streets in 1881, in 1894 they lived at 800 North F, then in 1897, 1904 and 1910 were living at 600 North 8th street.

He served in the Confederate army, and after the war returned to his trade in Fort Smith.

In his early days his business was exceedingly lucrative. Machine-made shoes were unknown, and $25 was the ordinary price for a pair of dress boots.

The oldest known building still in use today built by the Helbling family circa 1000-1100 A.D., located between Bolligen and Jona, Switzerland. The picture of this Chapel was taken in August 1971 with JoAnn and James Helbling in the doorway.

Every person who gave any thought to dress had his own last and Mr. Helbling had more than 100 of these special lasts in his shop. They were for the society belles as well as for the officers and business men.

As the shoe factories increased their trade, Mr. Helbling's business diminished. He retired upon the sale of his shop, but after a few months he grew homesick for his bench and lasts, and opened a shop at 515 North "A" street, where he remained until his health began to fail.

On April 5, 1877 he married Katharina (Catherine) Weitz, born March 27, 1860, died February 18, 1937. She came from Burmah, Alsace Lorriane. She was 12 years old when she came to the United States with her aunt. Her parents were Ludwig Louis Weitz, born April 21, 1825, and Louise Metzger born 1830, who remained behind when she came to the United States. Felix and Katharina had two children:

I. Emil Felix born August 1, 1880 in Fort Smith, died March 1, 1962 in Fort Smith, and was buried in the Catholic Cemetery. He attended Kemper Military Academy, married Irene Philomeme Wegman on February 10, 1904. Irene was born August 22, 1882 in Fort Smith. She died from a serious illness on September 7, 1927 and is also buried at the Catholic Cemetery. She was descended from two of Fort Smith's oldest families. Her parents were Henry Wegman and Rose McAuley. At her death she was survived by her husband, two daughters. Rosemary Helbling and Elizabeth Helbling; two sons, Felix Helbling, University of Arkansas student, and Henry Helbling; one-sister, Mrs. Ed Maledon, four brothers, John, Will, and Chris Wegman, all of Fort Smith, and Albert A. Wegman of Muskogee, Oklahoma. She was the niece of William Wegman, Con Wegman and of Mrs. R. C. Bollinger, of Fort Smith.

II. Theolyena Philipina was born July 20, 1883 in Fort Smith. She married Giles Maas on April 21, 1908 and later moved to Dallas. They had no children.

Emil and Irene had four children:

Evolution of a Golf Collector

As you can see, I grew up around golf. My Father was a club pro and we lived on the 2nd floor of the club house. My playground was the golf course. I took up collecting golf antiques in 1986 and studied the history of the game. In 1991, I took the big step into the golf exhibit business. We have the only "Traveling Golf Museum" in the US.A., according to my friends at the USGA and PGA. We are featured at the tournaments, malls, charity events, and golf and resort shows, etc. ... including the astrodome.

Abstracts from the Docket of Justice of the Peace Samuel Edmondson

Transcribed and Abstracted by Amelia Martin and Janice Eddleman

Samuel Edmondson was born in Tennessee in 1808, but was taken to Georgia by his father Thomas Edmondson when he was a boy.<sup>1</sup> He lived there until 1832 when he settled at Crawford Court House.<sup>2</sup> Mr. Edmondson moved to Van Buren when the court was moved there. In 1840 he came from Van Buren to Fort Smith, cut the trees from his lot and built a house at the corner of Fourth and B Streets.<sup>3</sup> His second wife was Ann Manning and he had at least three sons: Rev. James Edmondson, who was a Missionary Baptist preacher<sup>4</sup>; T. W. Edmondson, who was a partner in the firm of Wood, Edmondson & Britt, Star Grocery House<sup>5</sup> and Col. Samuel M. Edmondson who like his father became a Sebastian County Justice of the Peace<sup>6</sup>. The elder Samuel Edmondson died of cholera on October 4, 1866.<sup>7</sup>

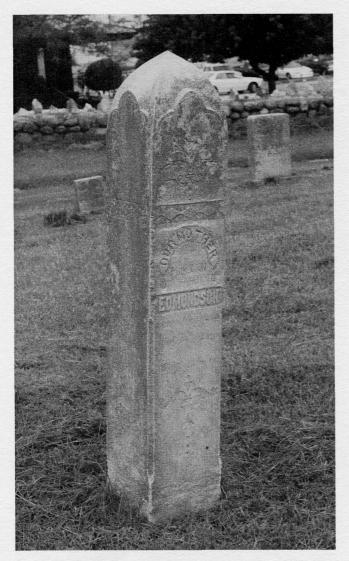

Mr. Edmondson first became a Justice of the Peace about 1840 when Matthew Moore who was then the Justice of the Peace moved to Sugar Loaf.<sup>8</sup> He was to serve in that capacity and as a "practitioner at law in Fort Smith for over thirty years,"<sup>9</sup> earning himself the nickname of "Old Ginger."<sup>10</sup> When the first election for county officers was held from Sebastian County on January 27, 1851, Edmondson was elected as one of the commissioners to select a county seat.<sup>11</sup> These commissioners met at Jenny Lind in May of 1851 and "located the seat of justice on forty acres of land lying in Section 12, Township 6 north, Range 31 west, and donated by Reuben Coker for that purpose. They also named the place Greenwood."<sup>12</sup> He also served Sebastian County as a member of the Arkansas House of Representatives in both the Tenth (1854-1855) and Eleventh (1856-1857) State Legislatures.<sup>13</sup>

In spite of his long record of service to the courts, Edmondson was not without legal problems of his own. According to Goodspeed, "On the 19th of February, 1848, Jesse Merritt, a pardoned convict, was killed at Fort Smith by Samuel Edmondson. Some difficulty existed between the parties, and in the morning they met and quarreled, and about 3 o'clock P.M. Merritt walked into Edmondson's office to see Esquire Hudspeth, and after getting through with his business, and being in the act of leaving, Edmondson fired at him from the outside through the back door of the office. The ball entered his right breast, and came out under the right shoulder-blade. Merritt fell upon the floor, uttered one short groan, and was dead. Edmondson fled, and went to the residence of Maj. Elias Rector, about two miles from town, where he sent for the sheriff. He was afterward tried for the murder and acquitted."<sup>14</sup>

The following information was abstracted from Samuel Edmondson's Justice of the Peace Docket dated in the front of the book 1860-1861. However, the entries are dated from September 8, 1859, to June 28, 1861. It should be noted that the role of the early justices of the peace was considerably different from that of today. They heard some civil and criminal cases then as well as the more modern role of performing marriages and acting as a county legislature. It is also important to realize that a justice's docket is not the court minutes; it is rather like today's diary or calendar.

The docket was loaned, for copying, to the Fort Smith Historical Society by Mr. George A. Toney of Little Rock, Arkansas. It is a ledger book, with several different handwritings and formats, which contains marriages and cases covering nonpayment of debts, stray animals, violent crimes including one case of child abuse and cases of runaway slaves. Most cases appear to have been heard without the assistance of an attorney. With a few exceptions herein noted, all of the entries were signed by Justice of the Peace Edmondson. Costs and fees are listed at the end of each case document with the fees for the Justice of the Peace ranging from fifty cents to three dollars and fifty cents and the witnesses getting about fifty cents.

State of Arkansas vs Arch Stand, a Cherokee. 7 August 1860 comes Sol Nellis and made his declaration in writing he was shot on the evening of the 6th of August 1860 in the County of Sebastian and in the city of Fort Smith, that one Arch Stand, a Cherokee and a native of the Cherokee Nation, did on the said 6th day of August 1860, at said county and in said city of Fort Smith did draw and shoot at the said Nellis with a Colt's revolver, the same being loaded with leaden balls or slugs and powder, did then shoot me, the said Nellis, in the abdomen with the intent to kill and murder me without any provocation whatever. I am fully satisfied that I cannot recover from the wounds inflicted. I believe that I must soon die. I make these declarations with the solemnity of impending dissolution and know that I cannot recover. When the difficulty occurred, I was going up toward the Indian in a peaceable manner, and told him he ought not to have his pistol out in that manner, throwing it round; that it might go off and kill some one, and just as I reached out my hand to take hold of the pistol, and was in the act of taking hold of it, he pulled the trigger and fired at me. I believe in the final accountability of all persons to the Creator and I have made these declarations with a full sense of that accountability, and under as solemn obligations as if under oath. On this 18th day of September 1860 comes Thomas Barnes and made his declaration under oath in writing stating he was shot on 18 Sept. 1860 on the north side of the Arkansas River opposite the steamboat landing in the city of Fort Smith (illegible) well within the Cherokee Nation by John Bonge(?) about one half inch below the right nipple and at the same time and place he was cut by a knife in the hands of James Bonge in the side of the neck, at the time he received the wounds his brother William Barnes had in his possession a large sum of money (perhaps from the weight of it) and from his own knowledge of counting the same, there was on or about One Thousand Dollars. Being well acquainted with the parties. I am of the opinion that their aim was to attack me before they could attack William Barnes believing that they dreaded me worse than him. They had good reason to believe that William Barnes had the above named amount of money in his possession and he verily believed that the attack was made for the purpose of robbing him of the said sum of money, or at least it looks reasonable to him that such was their intention as they knew that he had the above amount on money in his possession at the camp meeting ground in the Cherokee Nation on Thursday last. Continued on Page 101.

Page 101

I am perfectly sensible of what I state, and I am of the opinion that I cannot survive the wounds that I have received, and beliving myself to be at the point of death, I make this statement to be true.

And thereupon comes Wm. Barnes as witness, who being duly sworn by me, on his oath says that on the evening of the 18th Sept. 1860 he was attacked by James Bonge and Moses Edwards on the North side of the Arkansas River, near the ferry landing, opposite Ft. Smith, in the Cherokee Nation, at which time James Bonge seized him with violence whilst on his horse by the arm, at which time the said Moses Edwards stabbed him in the back, at which time they pulled him off his horse and on rising up, not seeing my own horse, I jumped on another horse and rode a short distance in the Nation, and then returned and crossed the river to Fort Smith. From the time that I was pulled off my horse. I never saw my saddle bages containing the money belonging to Peter Mankins which I had in possession at the time containing on or about one thousand dollars in gold and silver which money belonged to said Peter Mankins, the said saddle bags and money given into (See page 102.)

My possession by said Mankins four or five days ago, during which time I had possession of the same most of the time. I have been in the habit of trading for and carrying money for said Mankin for several years. I do know that James Bonge knew that I had the money belonging to Mankins for he asked me and I told him so. It looks reasonable to me that the aforesaid attack was made on me and my brother, Thomas Barnes, for the purpose of robbing me of the above named amount of money. From the wounds inflicted on me, I have reason to believe that I may never recover and I make this statement knowing that I am in my proper mind as much as I ever was. I state that my brother and myself are both Cherokee Indians and that James Bonge and Moses Edwards are both Cherokee Indians and that Pete Mankins is a White Man and a citizen of the State of Arkansas.

And thereupon comes B.W. Alberty and in his oath says, that on the evening of the 18th of Sept 1860, I was on the north bank of the Arkansas River opposite Fort Smith in the Cherokee Nation. Whilst there I saw Ridle Benge who told me that Moses Edwards had in his possession the horse and saddle bags that I was inquiring for. He told me this when I inquired if he had seen Wm. Barnes horse and saddle bags on the bar. He asked me my reasons for asking him these guestions and I replied that Wm. Barnes had lost a horse and a pair of saddle bags containing one thousand to fifteen hundred dollars in gold and that I was in search of them. He replied, you need not hunt for them because Moses Edwards has got the horse and saddle bags and run off with them. I was requested by Peter Mankin to hunt for them. Ridle Benge told me that another of the boys, John Benge or James Benge were near him, Ridle Benge, at the time of the shooting. He said that the horse that Wm. Barnes had with the saddle bags on ran towards him and he caught the horse. Moses Edwards ran to him, jerked the horse loose from him.

jumped on him and ran off with him, and had the saddle bags on the horse. I asked him if he knew that to be Wm. Barnes horse. He said he did. I called on Carter Daniels as a witness to know if he would swear to that, he said he would. I said, if so I would go back and tell Mr. Mankin what had become of his saddle bags, which I did, and we quit hunting for the same. I consider Riddle Benge to be a clever, responsible man. Thomas and William Barnes are both Cherokee, also Moses Edwards, James & John Benge are all Cherokee. Peter Mankin is a white man. Signed: B.W. Alberty. Thereupon comes John Barnes & on his oath swears that he is the father of Thomas & William Barnes and that he knows these to be natives of the Cherokee Nation.

Rolon Springs Cemetery

By Janice Bufford Eddleman

On the southwest corner of Newlon Road and Newlon Lane, hidden in the woods, briars and tall weeds, there is what was once a fairly large cemetery. The sign on the corner names the cemetery as Nolon Springs, but there is dispute as the spelling of the name and for whom it was named.

Before January 1851, when Sebastian County was created, the location of the cemetery was in Crawford County. Crawford County Tax Records show that in 1843 the land was owned by Harriet Craig Nowland (the widow of Capt. Edward William Benjamin Nowland). It is believed that land in the area may also have been owned by a Charles Newlon at one time.

According to legend Jack C. Mussett's young son died and was buried near the Mussett home as was customary in those days. Mrs. Mussett spent so much time at his grave that Mr. Mussett became concerned for her health and decided to establish a community cemetery and move the boy's grave there, out of his wife's sight. Jack C. Mussett, William M. Cravens and R.T. Kerr bought the land from Wharton Carnall in 1887. The deed reads as follows:

Know all men by these presents that I, Wharton Carnall, for in consideration of the sum of seventy five dollars to me in hand paid by Wm. M. Cravens, R.T. Kerr and Jack C. Mussett and others of School District No. 22 of Upper Township in Sebastian County in the State of Arkansas do hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey upon the said Jack C. Mussett Trustee for the inhabitants of said School District 22 and unto his successors and assigns forever the following lands lying in the County of Sebastian and State of Arkansas to wit: two acres of land off the north east corner of the NE/4 of the NE/4 of Section 34 of Township 9 of Range 32 described as follows, beginning at the NE corner of said forty acre tract and running south one hundred and forty yards along the east line of said tract thence west seventy yards, thence north one hundred and forty yards to the north line of said forty acre tract thence west seventy yards to beginning containing two acres more or less to be used and held as a burying ground for the people of said School District according to its present boundaries and no other. To have and to hold the same to the said J.C. Mussett, Trustee, and his successors in trust for the uses and purposes and no other purpose with all the appurtenances hereunto belonging. And I hereby covenant with said J.C. Mussett Trustee as aforesaid and his successors that I will forever warrant and defend the title to said land to the said J.C. Mussett Trustee and his successors against the lawful claims of all persons whatever. Witness my hand and seal on this the 1st day of January 1887. Signed: Wharton Carnall.

The cemetery has, for many years, been overgrown, undergoing an occasional cleaning by a Scout troop or a R.O.T.C. or other civic minded group. It has also been the victim of vandals. From time to time, various persons or groups, including the Southside High School R.O.T.C., Elaine Fant Metheny, Virginia Fant Bruce, Sam Allen and the late Chris Elmore Allen, have attempted to inventory the cemetery. The following is a compilation of the known lists, but probably does not represent nearly all the stones in the cemetery.

By Janice Bufford Eddleman

LASTING MEMORIES: A Guide to Writing Your Family History, by Dana Jordan Alexander and Amy Shea. 140 pages. Soft cover, spiral bound. Price $16.95 plus $2.25 shipping. Available from Generations Publications, 1937 Dembrigh Lance, Charlotte, NC 28262.

This book is a workbook for writing a family history. The first five chapters are devoted to writing your own personal history, but are a good guide for writing the history of individuals in your family tree. Chapter Five is devoted to the immigration of family members to the United States and Chapter Six consists of worksheets asking those interviewed to tell of their reaction to such technological changes as the invention of the automobile. The next chapters are dedicated to questions to answer about the family in decades from 1910 to 1980 and the final chapters ask the person being interviewed to tell such things as what they think the most important event in their life was and what they would like people to remember about them. As a former history teacher, I could think of a lot of ways to use some of the worksheets in a classroom. In my opinion, if you are working with children in either history or genealogy, a copy of this book would be "chucked full" of ideas for your use. It would also be very helpful in helping a family historian to "flesh out" a genealogy and save it from the bare bones of names, dates, events and places.

DOWNTOWN TRANSIT SYSTEM

On June 11, 1996, a trolley bus built to resemble the streetcars that once ran in Fort Smith, inaugurated the Fort Smith Public Transit System downtown. Telephone number for the Transit system is 783-6464.

The system is operating on a demandresponse basis, with limited, fixed route service in the city's downtown area from 5:45 a.m. to 6;45 p.m., Mondays through Fridays, and from 7:15 a.m. to 6:45 p.m. on Saturdays.

Springdale-based Ozark Regional Transit has been hired by the city to run the transit system.

This system has no connection to the Fort Smith Trolley Museum.

Telephone numbers for Fort Smith Tourism and Visitor's Center (Miss Laura's) are 783-8888 and 783-7690.

FORT SMITH TROLLEY MUSEUM

The Fort Smith Trolley

Museum is not connected with the Downtown Transit System in any way. The museum is at 100 South 4th Street and operates an electric streetcar. Telephone numbers for the Trolley Museum are 783-0205, 783-1237 and 783-0145.

Hours for operation of the electric streetcar are 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Tokens to ride the streetcar can be bought at the Old Fort Museum or from the operator of the streetcar.

The April 21st tornado narrowly missed the Trolley Museum. A brick building one half block from the Museum and across the street from the annex was totally destroyed. The only damage received by the museum was that one of the front doors was blown open resulting in bent hinges.

The track crossing of Rogers Avenue has been delayed due to the tornado. The track switch necessary to complete the crossing arrived just before the tornado. The city was to cut the street so the connection could be made. The tornado has given the city more important tasks to do but the crossing should be completed in the near future.

Five years ago a weaker tornado hit the museum, blew all the front doors in three feet and destroyed thirty feet of the east wall. Nothing inside the museum was damaged. The mural on the wall adjacent to the museum trolley stop was blown over and had to be rebuilt. John Bell and his students re-did the mural that shows the history of the Fort Smith trolley system. We hope the museum isn't in a tornado alley.

VALLEY OF THE ARKANSAS GATHERING

Groups of re-enactors spanning almost 150 years of frontier history will be among the highlights of the first annual "Valley of the Arkansas Gathering" in Fort Smith November 1, 2, and 3, 1996.

The three day "Gathering" on the banks of the Arkansas River is planned as a unique touristoriented event that includes exhibits and displays that focus on the rich multicultural heritage of the early Southwest.

In the 19th century, the original Fort Smith was the dividing line between the civilized South and the lawless West. The Gathering is planned to draw attention to this area's influence on the history of our great country, from the point of view of the settlers, the Indians, the outlaws, the cowboys and the military. They all tried to co-exist here.

Another of the Gathering's premier attractions will be marking the 100th anniversary of the death of Isaac C. Parker, the federal judge credited with bringing law and order to the frontier. His restored courtroom and gallows are part of the Fort Smith National Historic Site.

Other events planned for the three-day Gathering include an authentic Indian Powwow, a living historical time-line, the arrival of the Delta Queen steamboat, a two-state Craft Fair, an original historical drama, a World War Two USO dance at the Old Fort Museum, bands and concerts presenting period and contemporary music and dance, thematic food booths, concessions and an antique car show.

Special events are being planned by most Fort Smith tourist attractions, including the Old Fort Museum, Fort Smith Trolley Museum, Fort Smith Art Center, the William Henry Harrison Clayton (Judge Parker's prosecutor) House, the General William O. Darby Home, and the Fort Smith Patent Model Museum. Watch newspaper and television for detailed schedule of events and activities.

The event is tri-sponsored by the City of Fort Smith, the National Park Service, and the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.

25th – A roaring inferno, believed to have been caused when the lights were turned back on Wednesday in the tornado-damaged Eads Brothers Furniture Co. Building, destroyed five businesses on Garrison Avenue in Fort Smith's already ravaged downtown area.

Along with Eads, which had stood at its 414 Garrison Avenue location since 1901, the blaze completely wiped out Goodwill Industries of Arkansas, Kelley Realty Co., Herb's Feed and Vet Supplies and A Print Above, the other business on the north side of the block, said Fort Smith Fire Marshal Joe Wing.

THE LEGALIZED PRIMARIES

If any doubt existed as to the wisdom of legalizing primary elections it has been removed.

The Sebastian primaries were conducted under the general election laws of the state, and legalized according to an act of the last legislature.

The scheme worked to perfection. The election was conducted in an orderly and decent manner. The saloons were closed. The polls were free from the presence of the heeler and rounder, and the voter went to the polls without interference and cast his vote for whom he chose. The disgraceful scenes and practices which usually attend such elections were entirely wanting.

The legalized primary has worked so successfully that we trust it will be continued.

FUN FOR THE LAWYERS

There are two suits on the docket of the coming circuit court of the Fort Smith District which will attract much attention and give lawyers a chance to liven up the usually dull proceedings of the session. One is a suit filed by I. N. Dodge, Assistant Clerk of the United States Court, against P. Burman, the well known merchant, for injuries occasioned by coming in contact with a wire which hung in front of Mr. Burman's building. The amount claimed is $10,000.

One night last December Mr. Dodge was in Galer and Brunaldi's store making a purchase. Just as he had concluded, the streetcar passed and Mr. Dodge ran to catch it. As he stepped from the sidewalk, a wire that had been stretched from one awning post to another in front of Mr. Burman's store caught him under the chin and threw him violently on the pavement, injuring him so severely that he has never yet recovered from the effects.

The other suit is by Ed Haglin against Mr. Belt. It is for $5,000., and was instituted because of an assault made by Mr. Belt upon Haglin shortly after Belt's building at Jenson was burned.

In Greenwood Circuit Court a suit has been filed by Belt against Haglin for $6,000. This suit grows out of the burning at Jenson of Belt's building which was occupied at the time by Haglin with a stock of goods.

MARCH 20, 1896 TROUBLE IN CAMP

There is a kicking in some quarters about the manner in which the Republican State Convention was conducted. The kicking comes from an element of the party who believe there is something more to politics than a mere struggle for spoils, and who are disgusted that so large a body of people as the Republicians of this State should be compelled to submit so subvervently to the dictation of the bosses.

Mr. W. D. Mathews, editor of the Stuttgart Free Press, is loud in his denunciation of the manner in which Powell Clayton and his strikers managed the convention at Little Rock.

-•-MAY 1, 1896 THE COLORADO BEETLE

The dreaded Colorado Beetle seeems to have made his appearance among us, and our potato growers will do well to see that he does not get a foothold in their fields. Recently Mr. J. H. Alexander, who grows potatoes extensively in the Cherokee Nation, near this place, found a strange looking bug preying upon his crops, and collecting specimens, sent them to Prof. Monks, at the Arkansas University, for examination. In a short time a letter was received stating that the insect in question was the veritable Colorado beetle. This is sorrowful news for our people. The Colorado beetle is a great pest, and has caused incalculable damage in the regions which have been infected with his presence. Paris green is said to be efficacious in checking his ravages.

The dry weather of the past ten days has seriously injured the strawberry crops and has hurt potatoes to some extent. The latter show good tops but are backward in the development of tubers.
